Academic Advisement Center: Room M201, (718) 368-5744
Support and promote campus-wide advising for continuing students from 2nd semester through graduation to help clarify their career and life goals.

Zuleika Clarke, Senior Director

Access-Ability Services: Room D205, (718) 368-5175
Provide appropriate accommodations and assistance to students with disabilities by providing equal access to all KCC programs and services.

Stella Woodroffe, Ph.D., LHMC, Director

Athletics, Room G110, (718) 368-5737
Provide opportunities for students who seek to reach their athletic potential representing Kingsborough Community College.

Damani Thomas, Athletic Director

Career Development Center & Service Learning, Room C102, (718) 368-5115
Provide career counselling, career exploration and employment opportunities to all students throughout their educational pursuits at KCC

Marisa Joseph, Associate Director

Child Development Center, Room V105, (718) 368-5868
Our center provides on-campus child care for children between the ages of two years six months and five years of age. We are a licensed early care and education center

Heather Brown, Director

College Discovery Program, Room L516, (718) 368-5520
A higher education opportunity program that provides academic, financial and counselling assistance to students entering college for the first time who might otherwise be excluded due to academic or economic circumstances

Dr. Sandra Ramos, Director

The College Opportunity to Prepare for Employment (COPE) Room T4216, (718) 368-4660
The COPE program targets students receiving any form of public assistance, and offers comprehensive support services to students who enroll full time in approved, associate degree programs

Marie Beavers-Mandara, Director

Counseling Services, Room D102, (718) 368-5975
Provides free and confidential services to all current KCC students and consultation to faculty and staff. This service is specifically geared to helping students with personal and emotional issues that are interfering with achieving their academic goals

Dasha Gorenshteyn, LCSW, Director
Freshman Services, Room F123, (718) 368-4806
Responsible for the advisement and registration of incoming and first semester freshmen. The program is aimed at assisting freshman students make a comfortable and successful transition to Kingsborough Community College.
Cindy Lui, Director

Health Services: Room A108, (718) 368-5684
We provide emergency health care, medical record review, storage and retrieval, medical consultations, health related referrals, health education and advisory and preventative health services
Dorothy Gale, RN, College Nurse

Lighthouse, Room U228, (718) 368-6565
It is the mission of the Alcohol and Substance Abuse Prevention program to maintain the drug free environment of the Kingsborough Campus and to prevent the use of alcohol and substance abuse.
Michael Geller, Director

The Men’s Resource Center: Room U218, (718) 368-5684
Building leaders through a multi-tiered mentoring program as well as career workshops, academic support services, and networking opportunities with KCC staff, faculty, and peers
Michael Rodriguez, Program Manager

New Start: Room C102, (718) 368-5115
The New Start program provides support for students who have had academic difficulties at participating senior (CUNY and non-CUNY) colleges.
Melissa Merced, Associate Director

Office of Military and Veterans Affairs, Room M101, (718) 368-5472
Help Veteran students navigate their educational entitlements and ease the transition from military life into college life
Alexandra McDonald, Veteran Liaison

Opening Doors, Room E102, (718) 368-6627
Provides an opportunity for incoming students to participate in block schedules (Learning Communities) during their first semester of attendance
Samantha Sierra, Director of Learning Communities for Student Affairs

STUDENT AFFAIRS DEPARTMENT LISTINGS
Peter Cohen, Vice-President of Student Affairs: Room A216: (718) 368-5563

Evening Advisement, Room M101, (718) 368 - 4911 The Evening Advisement Center provides Evening students with supportive academic services.
JoAnne Palmieri, Special Assistant to the Dean

Designed by: Robert Cincinnati
Student Success Center: Room M101, (718) 368 - 4911
The Advisors for Special Populations serves current as well as prospective students in choosing a career in the health field. We work with students for one-on-one advisement sessions to discuss major selection, academic progress, career and academic opportunities.

Brian Mitra, Associate Dean of Student Affairs

Scholarship Opportunities, Room C102, (718) 368-5115
The office specializes in Transfer Out Scholarships (school based scholarships) and periodically advertises scholarships sponsored by private organizations.

Melissa Merced, Associate Director

Service-Learning Program, Room C102, (718) 368-5115
A teaching and learning strategy that integrates meaningful community service opportunities into a student’s coursework.

Marisa Joseph, Associate Director

Student Conduct, Room A216, (718) 368-5563
Educate students and protect the rights, health, and safety of all members of the KCC community.

Colleen Maeder, Student Conduct Officer

Student Success Center: Room M101, (718) 368 - 4911
The Advisors for Special Populations serves current as well as prospective students in choosing a career in the health field. We work with students for one-on-one advisement sessions to discuss major selection, academic progress, career and academic opportunities.

Brian Mitra, Associate Dean of Student Affairs

Student Life: Room C123, (718) 368-5597
We are the main hub for student clubs/organizations, Student Government, the Peer Advisor program, the KCC GOLD Leadership Initiative, as well as all major programming. Our goal is to continue to enhance campus life while supporting the academic mission of the college.

Tasheka Sutton-Young, Director of Student Life and Athletics

Transfer, Room C102, (718) 368-5115
Provide academic advisement and registration for students transferring into KCC, as well as transfer counseling for students transferring after graduation.

Melissa Merced, Associate Director

TRiO Student Support Services, Room D205, (718) 368-5175
The overarching objective is twofold: increase retention and graduation rates and promote transfers to four year institutions. Participants must meet one or more eligibility criteria.

Faith Fogelman, Program Manager

Women’s Center, Room M382, (718) 368-4700
We offer women a welcoming, supportive environment in which to explore educational, professional and lifestyle issues.

Frances Robinson, Program Manager

Scepter, Room M230, (718) 368 - 5603
Scepter is a publication of the students of Kingsborough Community College. It is not a college publication and therefore, the college is not responsible for its contents. The student editors have full responsibility for content.

Tasheka Sutton-Young, Director of Student Life and Athletics

Women’s Center, Room M382, (718) 368-4700
We offer women a welcoming, supportive environment in which to explore educational, professional and lifestyle issues.

Frances Robinson, Program Manager

Designed by: Robert Cincinnati