Dear Construction Industry Leader:

We invite you to register as many of your employees as possible, who are involved in helping your company attain one LEED® Innovation Credit for the GreenAdvantage certification.

This one-day workshop is open to small to medium-sized and MWBE construction companies that want to stay competitive and meet New York City's PlaNYC 2030 environmental goals.

The GreenAdvantage Training Program is the nation's only green certification for contractors and is recognized by the US Green Building Council.

*Sincerely,
BEDC, Kingsborough and City Tech*
