Women Inspiring Innovation Through Imagination

Celebrating women in science, technology, engineering & math. Women’s History Month 2013

Women’s Center

Thursday, 3/7/13
Keynote Address:
Keynote Speaker: Dr. Taras is a professor in the Department of Biological Sciences at KCC. She teaches Microbiology in Health Disease & General Microbiology. Her research has focused on antibiotic production by marine actinomycetes.
10 - 11:30am  MAC Rotunda

Tuesday, 3/12/13
Dr. Perea Workshop:
Facilitators: Dr. Katia Perea & Anton Hornfeldt. This workshop highlights how popular media culture is used to introduce the size-zero ideal of today to the younger generation.
2 - 4pm  U219/220

Open Mic Night:
KCC students perform poetry, spoken word, song and spiritual dance.
6 - 9pm  U219/220

Wednesday, 3/13/13
Artist/Scientist Workshop:
Facilitator: Dr. Catherine Pierre. This workshop will delve into how an extraordinary female artist and wax anatomist, Anna Morandi-Manzolini, forever changed the world of both art and science.
10:30 - 11:30am  U219/220

HeLa Cell Workshop:
Panel Discussion-
"Women In Biology" will explore their thoughts and reaction to the "Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks" book.
11:30 - 12:30pm  U219/220

HeLa Cell Workshop:
Panel Discussion-
"Women’s Studies" faculty will explore their thoughts and reaction to the "Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks" book.
2 - 3pm  U219/220

Ethno-Botanical Workshop:
Dr. Jillian DeGezelle. This workshop will explore how people of particular cultures and regions make use of indigenous plants. It will explore how plants are used for food, shelter, medicine, clothing, hunting and religious ceremonies.
3 - 4pm  U219/220

Thursday, 3/14/13
Ecology Discussion:
Facilitator: Dr. Regina Alvarez. This workshop will focus on ecology, wildlife and biodiversity.
10:30 - 11:30am  U219/220

Writing for Social Change:
Facilitator: Kelly Cogswell. This workshop will explore how writing can be used to promote social change.
11:30 - 1pm  U219/220

"Herstory" Workshop:
Facilitator: Dr. Maxine Wolfe. Film and Q&A: This workshop will focus on equal rights and lesbian activism.
1 - 3pm  U219/220

Tuesday, 3/19/13
Dr. Perea & Panel:
Panel Discussion: This discussion will focus on how documentary film makers, art archives and television cartoons work at creating and challenging notions of womanhood.
3-5pm  Terrace Room

Thursday, 3/21/13
"Roe vs. Wade" Workshop:
Professor Eleanor Bader: This workshop will explore the implications of the "Roe vs. Wade" decision.
10:30 - 11:30am  U219/220

"Dirty Paki Lingerie":
Sponsored by Student Life: A solo show which bares the lives of 6 Pakistani-American females as they share their experiences navigating 2 very different cultures.
11:30am  PAC

Frances Robinson, LMSW, Director
The Women’s Center, M382, 718-368-4700