

Liberal Arts - Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Concentration, A.A.

HEGIS: 5649.00

PROGRAM CODE: 01044

PROGRAM DIRECTOR: Dr. Jacob Segal

CONCENTRATION COORDINATOR: TBD

The Liberal Arts AA degree provides a foundation in general studies through exploration of an array of subject areas under liberal arts and sciences. Concentrations provide students opportunity to focus in a specific area. Courses promote development and application of effective communication skills, quantitative and scientific reasoning, critical thinking and analysis, and applying knowledge of human cultures, language and the natural world to issues experienced across diverse communities. The degree provides opportunity for transfer to baccalaureate programs.

The Women, Gender and Sexuality Studies Concentration provides students the opportunity to analyze structures of power and dimensions of difference by focusing on gender and the ways in which it intersects with other social identities, such as race, class, sexuality, ethnicity, nationality, ability, age, religion, among others. Students will learn about concepts of sex/gender systems, histories of social movements, interdisciplinary modes of inquiry, political debates, and cultural productions. Students will engage in feminist knowledge projects in both disciplinary locations like English and History and interdisciplinary locations like LGBTQ Studies and Ethnic Studies.

The curriculum presented here applies to students who started the major in Fall 2025 or Spring 2026. If you enrolled as a matriculant prior to that, please see the College Catalog for the year you started the major as a matriculant for the curriculum requirements that apply to you.

Consultation with the Program Advisor is required.
