RE: Change in Learning Outcomes for Liberal Arts Degree Program

The Chairs of the Liberal Arts Departments are proposing a change in the Learning Outcomes for the Liberal Arts Degree Program

FROM:

Demonstrate and apply ethical judgment to real-world problems and issues while recognizing multiple perspectives.

Apply knowledge of human cultures, language, or the natural world to problems and issues experienced across diverse communities.

Produce or analyze creative works according to a field or discipline's vocabulary and theory, using relevant techniques and processes, and in response to best practices.

TO:

Ideas

Identify patterns and ideas expressed in cultural and creative artifacts across a diverse range of historical and cultural contexts

Communications

Recognize and use the genres of communication common in various liberal arts disciplines.

Inquiry

Utilize processes of inquiry associated with liberal arts disciplines to analyze texts, cultural artifacts, and real-life experiences in order to develop an informed understanding of the world.

Ethics

Critically examine ethical issues related to complex real-world problems.

Rationale for Change:

The Liberal Arts Chairs believe these revised outcomes more effectively capture the goals of the program. By specifying artifacts and other concrete measures, the outcomes are both clearer and more assessable. They also align more closely with the institutional learning outcomes.
