Greetings from the President

Dear Class of 2025 graduates and guests:

Today marks a significant milestone and a moment brimming with accomplishment, promise, and the sweet taste of hard-earned success. On behalf of the faculty, staff, alumni, Kingsborough Community College Foundation board, and friends of the College, I extend my heartfelt congratulations as you stand on the threshold of new beginnings, ready to embark on your next chapter.

I would like to express my gratitude to our 60th Commencement keynote speaker House Democratic Leader Hakeem Jeffries for sharing his valuable insights with you today. Most of all, I want to thank the outstanding faculty and staff at KCC who have mentored you throughout your academic journey, as well as your friends and family who have supported you on your path to success.

Your journey has been one of dedication and resilience. President

Keynote Speaker

The Honorable Hakeem Jeffries

HOUSE DEMOCRATIC LEADER

U.S. REPRESENTATIVE, EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Hakeem Jeffries is the Democratic Leader in the U.S. House of Representatives, the highest-ranking Democrat in the chamber. He represents New York's diverse Eighth Congressional District and was unanimously elected to his leadership position in November 2022.

A Brooklyn native, Jeffries is serving his seventh term in Congress where he has established himself as a tireless advocate for social and economic justice. He previously served as chair of the Democratic Caucus and co-chair of the Democratic Policy and Communications Committee.

Jeffries has been recognized as one of the most effective legislators in Congress, successfully passing numerous bipartisan bills into law. His legislative achievements include the landmark FIRST STEP Act, widely regarded as the most meaningful criminal justice reform in a generation, and the Music Modernization Act, which modernized copyright laws for the digital age.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, he worked across the aisle to secure billions in funding for the Metropolitan Transportation Authority and fought to expand testing in hard-hit communities of color. Over the last four years, Jeffries has secured more than $56 million for projects in Brooklyn to provide food for the hungry, fund overdue improvements to medical centers, support organizations working to uplift our neighborhoods, deepen our cultural understanding and more through the Community Project Funding process.

In January 2020, Jeffries was appointed by Speaker Nancy Pelosi to serve as a House Impeachment Manager during the Senate trial of President Donald Trump, making history as the first African American man in this role.

Before his election to Congress, Jeffries served six years in the New York State Assembly where he authored laws to protect civil liberties, increase affordable housing and improve the civil court system. He led the first meaningful reform of the NYPD's stop-and-frisk program and championed legislation to end prison-based gerrymandering in New York State.

Jeffries graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Binghamton with a bachelor's degree in political science. He earned a master's degree in public policy from Georgetown University and received his law degree from New York University School of Law, where he graduated magna cum laude.

Following law school, Jeffries clerked for Judge Harold Baer Jr. of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York and practiced law at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP. He also served as counsel in the litigation department at Viacom Inc. and CBS.

Jeffries was born in Brooklyn Hospital, raised in Crown Heights and is a product of New York City's public school system, having graduated from Midwood High School. He lives in Prospect Heights with his family.

Greetings from the Faculty

Dr. Catherine Ma

DEPARTMENT OF BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

Dr. Catherine Ma joined Kingsborough Community College as an assistant professor in 2013. In 2022, she became the first Chinese full professor of psychology at the College.

Dr. Ma earned her Ph.D. and M.Phil. in social-personality psychology from the CUNY Graduate Center. She also holds a certificate in teaching with interactive technology. In 2022, she won the SPSSI Two-Year College Teaching and Mentoring Excellence Award.

She teaches many advanced psychology courses, including child and adolescent psychology, classroom management, research methods, and the psychology of immigration.

Her current research looks at how reading about racism affects college students who plan to become public school teachers in New York City. She has studied topics such as incorporating Asian American studies into the classroom, the experiences of Chinese immigrants, and the challenges faced by first-generation Ph.D. graduates of color. Other research includes the parenting experiences of Chinese mothers and how race and class affect youth sports.

Dr. Ma is an immigrant from Hong Kong and a first-generation college graduate. She is passionate about helping others succeed. At Kingsborough, she supports students through mentoring, parenting workshops, and her work with the Women's Center. She also mentors junior faculty from underrepresented groups.

To support immigrant students, she created the Yuet Chun & Tai Yee Ma Endowed Memorial Scholarship Fund in honor of her grandparents.

Dr. Ma co-founded AAMPOWER (Asian American Mentorship Providing Opportunities to Women for Empowerment and Resilience), a group that supports Asian and Asian American women in higher education. She serves on the board of the Asian American/Asian Research Institute of CUNY.

On behalf of the KCC faculty, she brings greetings to the graduating class of 2025.

Class of 2025 Valedictorian

Andres Soto

PHYSICAL EDUCATION MAJOR

Two decades ago, Andres Soto walked away from college with a low GPA and a lingering sense of failure. Today, he walks the stage as Kingsborough Community College's Class of 2025 valedictorian, graduating with a perfect 4.0 GPA and a renewed sense of purpose.

Soto, now 40, returned to school after years in a job that left him unfulfilled. Encouraged by his partner, inspired by his sister—who had recently returned to college and completed her degree—and driven by the desire to right an old wrong, he enrolled at Kingsborough to study physical education.

Born in Puerto Rico and raised in Brooklyn since the age of 5, Soto chose physical education because it combined two things he is passionate about: sports and teaching. He's been a tutor, a mentor, and a trainer to coworkers and hopes to teach physical education at the high school or college level. "Many people have told me I have a natural talent and the patience for teaching—and that I'd missed my calling. So I decided to make it my calling."

At Kingsborough, Soto did more than succeed—he thrived. He joined the Recreation Club and quickly became its secretary, then president. Under his leadership, the club created events that brought students, staff, and faculty together across campus. For his efforts, he received Kingsborough's 2025 Gold Student Leadership Award.

But academics always came first. Soto was accepted into the Honors Program and Phi Theta Kappa and made the Dean's List several times.

One of his proudest moments came during a fieldwork internship at the Melissa Riggio Higher Education Program. He adapted physical education courses for a class of about 20 adults with developmental disabilities for a semester, applying principles learned in a required course on therapeutic recreation taught by Professor MaryLou Fierle and his experience helping students with disabilities during Recreation Club events. "It was a challenge I never expected. I learned a lot about building meaningful bonds with my students."

Balancing work, school, and leadership wasn't easy. Soto managed it with discipline and careful planning. He also credits Kingsborough faculty for supporting him every step of the way. Professor Juan Carlos Franquiz, in particular, stood out. "His passion for teaching, his caring nature for students, and his appreciation for those who help others are qualities I want to emulate myself when I become a teacher."

Having graduated from Kingsborough in January 2025, Soto is now resuming his studies at Brooklyn College, determined to complete the work he began years ago, and is already thinking about a master's degree and a doctorate.

As valedictorian, he sees his speech as a chance to motivate others. "Take advantage of your youth," he said. "But if you stumble, it's never too late. The time will pass anyway—use it wisely."

Looking back, Soto doesn't just see a diploma. He sees proof of what's possible. "Where others see a certificate, I see hard work, dedication, and the chance to finally make my family proud."

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- College Library Access (Computer Usage, Book Checkout)
- Limited Term Parking on Campus
- Access to Physical Education Facilities
- Career Development Training Opportunities
- Exclusive Invitations to Special Events

GIVE BACK

As an alum, you know that KCC strives to provide affordable, high quality and transformational education to its students. Thanks to our donors and alumni making a gift to KCC, we enable student success. No matter the amount, your gift will make a meaningful impact on current and future students.
